2000 Baseball Team

The 2000 baseball team advanced to the NCAA Division II World Series in Montgomery, Alabama.

The Golden Knights finished 32-16-1 overall, overcoming being the first team eliminated in the New York Collegiate Athletic Conference Tournament by rebounding to win three consecutive games to capture the NCAA Northeast Regional Championship at UMass Lowell despite entering the weekend as the fourth and final seed.

Saint Rose lost to Indianapolis and eventual champion Southeastern Oklahoma State in the World Series, but its appearance firmly entrenched the program on the national landscape.

1999-00 Women's Basketball Team

The 1999-00 women's basketball ran off a then NCAA Division II record 34 consecutive victories before falling to eventual national champion Northern Kentucky in an NCAA Tournament National Quarterfinal "Elite Eight" encounter in Pine Bluff, Arkansas.

The Golden Knights also captured their sixth consecutive New York Collegiate Athletic Conference Championship, were the nation's top-ranked team for most of the season, and outscored their opponents by an average of 28.9 points.

HOME. OF ATHLETIC GREATNESS.
